Olympic Gold Medal Winner

Dear Friend of the Thousand Oaks Rotary Foundation,

This year will mark the 18th year the Thousand Oaks Rotary Foundation (Foundation) has sponsored the Midsummer Eve Wine Festival fundraiser with the Ventura County Special Olympics as its major beneficiary.

The Midsummer Eve Wine Festival is a delightful time of wine, beer, and food tasting, a silent auction, and live music. Last year the event raised $65,000 net for charities. The Foundation has donated over $475,000 to the Ventura County Special Olympics over the past 17 years. Our event this year is scheduled for Saturday, August 17, 2019 at the Hyatt Regency Westlake Plaza in Westlake Village.

We are asking you to join us in helping these special athletes by providing us with an Item, basket or certificate for our Silent Auction. Your donation is tax deductible to the extent provided by tax laws as the Thousand Oaks Rotary Foundation is an IRC 501 (c) (3) Tax Exempt Non-Profit organization – Tax ID Number: 77-0297455.

Ventura County Special Olympics provides year-round training and competition for more than 700 special-needs children and adults with varying degrees of ability. It is sports in the truest sense. The goal is not necessarily to win, but to participate and for each athlete to discover his or her own best. All earn an award, a cheer and a sincere “well done!”
